Preventing Osteoporosis: The Real Story

Current statistics indicate that 1 in 4 women and 1 in 8 men develop osteoporosis after age 50.

Deaths from the consequences of osteoporosis kill more women each year than the mortality rate for breast and ovarian cancer combined. 20% of women and 25% of men die within the first year following an osteoporotic fracture of the hip. Osteoporosis is preventable in almost every case, simply by providing bones with optimal nutrient support and sufficient weight bearing or resisted exercise.

Clinical Studies Prove Osteoporosis Prevention and Reversal Effects of Supplementation

Human Clinical Studies have shown that the following intake levels of calcium, Vitamin D and the Icaria Flavonoid (from the Epimedium Herb) prevent osteoporosis and can even help patients with osteoporosis and osteopenia reverse bone loss to a significant degree.

Calcium – daily average intake of 1500 mg (1100 from supplementation, plus 500-900 mg from food)

Vitamin D – 800 – 2000 IU

Icaria Flavonoid – 60 mg (from Epimedium)

Other Bone Support Nutrients of Importance Include:

Magnesium – 500 mg

Vitamin C- 1000 mg

Copper – 2 mg

Zinc – 15 mg

B-50 complex

Silica – 2-3 mg

Boron – 1.5 mg

Adëeva's Simple Two-Step Osteoporosis Solution

All of the above dosages can be achieved by taking the following two Adëeva supplements each day:

- Adëeva All-In-One Multiple Vitamin and Mineral
- Adëeva Bone Support Formula

For this reason, many health practitioners instruct patients to take the Adëeva Multiple Vitamin and Mineral Supplement, along with Adëeva Bone Support Supplement. It is the perfect two-step solution to the prevention and complementary management of osteoporosis and osteopenia.

The Icaria Flavonoid – a hidden gem in preventing and managing bone density problems

Most people know that calcium, magnesium and Vitamin D are important nutrients for osteoporosis prevention, but most people are not familiar with the bone strengthening effects of the Icaria Flavonoid. Clinical studies show that the Icaria Flavonoid, (derived from Epimedium or Horny Goat Weed) increases bone density in postmenopausal women, including those who have already lost significant bone density. As postmenopausal women are the group most prone to bone loss, the Icaria Flavonoid has passed the gold standard test for bone density prevention and complementary treatment.

In fact, the Icaria Flavonoid is the only naturally-occurring herbal agent proven to reverse bone loss. The inclusion of 60 mg of Icaria Flavonoid in Adëeva Bone Support Formula (the exact dosage proven to reverse bone loss in postmenopausal women) is one of the main reasons health professionals strongly recommend it to their patients over all other supplements, as a vital strategy to guard against life-threatening osteoporotic fractures

Ask your health practitioner about the important combination of Adëeva Bone Support Formula and the Adëeva All-In-One Multi Vitamin & Mineral supplement, as a sound, natural approach to help preserve and/or restore your bone density.
